JOINT RESOLUTIONS ON THIRD READINGEngrossed Senate Joint Resolution 1

Senator Kenley called up Engrossed Senate Joint Resolution 1 for third reading:

A JOINT RESOLUTION proposing an amendment to Article 10, Section 1 of the Constitution of the State of Indiana concerning taxation.

Be it resolved by the General Assembly of the State of Indiana:

SECTION 1. The following amendment to the Constitution of the State of Indiana is proposed and agreed to by this, the One Hundred Fifteenth General Assembly of the State of Indiana, and is referred to the next General Assembly for reconsideration and agreement.

SECTION 2. ARTICLE 10, SECTION 1 OF THE CONSTITUTION OF THE STATE OF INDIANA IS AMENDED TO READ AS FOLLOWS: Section 1. (a) Subject to this section, the General Assembly shall provide, by law, for a uniform and equal rate of property assessment and taxation and shall prescribe regulations to secure a just valuation for taxation of all property, both real and personal.

(b) A provision of this section permitting the General Assembly to exempt property from taxation also permits the General Assembly to exercise its legislative power to enact property tax deductions and credits for the property. The General Assembly may impose reasonable filing requirements for an exemption, deduction, or credit.

(c) The General Assembly may exempt from property taxation any property in any of the following classes:

- (1) Property being used for municipal, educational, literary, scientific, religious, or charitable purposes.
- (2) Tangible personal property other than property being held as an investment.
- (3) Intangible personal property.
- (4) Tangible ~~real~~ property, including curtilage, used as a principal place of residence by an:
 - (A) owner of the property;
 - (B) individual who is buying the tangible ~~real~~ property under a contract; or
 - (C) individual who has a beneficial interest in the owner of the tangible ~~real~~ property.

~~(b)~~ (d) The General Assembly may exempt any motor vehicles, mobile homes (not otherwise exempt under subsection (c)(4) or (e)), airplanes, boats, trailers, or similar property, provided that an excise tax in lieu of the property tax is substituted therefor.

(e) The following definitions apply to subsection (f):

- (1) "Other residential property" means tangible property (other than tangible property described in subsection (c)(4)) that is used for residential purposes.
- (2) "Nonresidential real property" means real property that is not tangible property described in subsection (c)(4) and is not other residential property.

(f) The General Assembly shall, by law, limit a taxpayer's property tax liability as follows:

- (1) A taxpayer's property tax liability on tangible property described in subsection (c)(4) may not exceed one percent (1%) of the gross assessed value of the property that is the basis for the determination of property taxes.
- (2) A taxpayer's property tax liability on other residential property may not exceed two percent (2%) of the gross assessed value of the property that is the basis for the determination of property taxes.
- (3) A taxpayer's property tax liability on nonresidential real property may not exceed three percent (3%) of the gross assessed value of the property that is the basis for the determination of property taxes.

(4) A taxpayer's property tax liability on personal property (other than personal property that is tangible property described in subsection (c)(4) or personal property that is other residential property) may not exceed three percent (3%) of the gross assessed value of the taxpayer's personal property that is the basis for the determination of property taxes within a particular taxing district.

(g) Property taxes imposed after being approved by the voters in a referendum or local public question shall not be considered for purposes of calculating the limits to property tax liability under subsection (f).

The resolution was read in full and placed upon its passage. The question was, Shall the resolution pass?

Roll Call 88: yeas 41, nays 7. The resolution was declared passed. The Chair instructed the Secretary to inform the House of the passage of the resolution. House sponsors: Representatives Crawford, Espich, Welch, and Turner.
